

Bicentennial of the Treaty of Fort Jackson Symposium August 9th at the Alabama Department of Archives and History Montgomery, Alabama

- 8:45AM Refreshments in the Milo B. Howard Auditorium
- 9:10 Opening Remarks in the Farley Auditorium
- 9:15 Dr. Tom Kanon “A Territory of Vast Extent and Fertility: Tennessee’s Perspective on the Treaty of Fort Jackson”
- 9:45 Mr. Brian Conary “Feast and Famine: The Service of Supply and the Treaty of Fort Jackson”
- 10:15 Question and Answer with Dr. Kanon and Mr. Conary
- 10:25 Break with Refreshments served in the Milo B. Howard Auditorium
- 10:45 Mr. Robert Thrower
- 11:15 Mr. Justin Giles “Mvskoke Etlwv – The Muscogee People”
- 11:45 Dr. Kathryn Braund “Mapping Dispossession: The Creek Nation and the Treaty of Fort Jackson”
- 12:15 Question and Answer with Mr. Thrower, Mr. Giles and Dr. Braund
- 12:30 Closing Remarks by Mr. Jim Parker

The symposium is free and open to the public. No registration is required.

